

Hello,

Thank you for your interest in Clark Custom Education Loans. Below is information regarding the two main educational loan companies we recommend to therapeutic programs in need client financing options? The lenders are listed in order of requirements, Sallie Mae being the least stringent and Key Bank most rigorous. Once you have obtained approval, your clients will simply need to call Clark Custom Educational Loans. Our service for your clients is identical for both products. By filling out our client application they can have access to both loan products. Be sure to contact us once you've obtained approval to get going with our training program and activate your approved status with CCEL. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions!

Sallie Mae Loan Information:

Programs who want to seek approval for the traditional Sallie Mae Loan must meet the following requirements:

- Be licensed in the state in which they do business.
- Programs must be in practice for more than 1 year.
- Willing to submit financial verification.

To obtain more specific information and a hard copy application contact a Sallie Mae Regional Sales Rep. There is designated Reps for every state and region. Please see the attached list to locate your Sallie Mae Sales Rep.

We recommend that you contact the rep for your area and fill out the on-line inquiry form. Click on the following link that will take you directly to their web site.
